PRAYER HIGHLIGHT

On the weekend of February 15, seventy Christians were murdered by militants in eastern Democratic Republic of the Congo.

“We don’t know what to do or how to pray; we’ve had enough of massacres. May God’s will alone be done,” said a church elder.

The Bible promises that when we do not have the words to pray, the Holy Spirit intercedes for us with “groanings too deep for words.” (Romans 8:26). We are also promised in Psalm 34 that “The Lord is close to the broken-hearted and saves those who are crushed in Spirit.”

As our persecuted brothers and sisters reel from the terrors of this massacre, will you join in grieving and prayer for them?

- Pray that God will miraculously comfort those who have lost loved ones.
- Pray for the strengthening of the faith of Christians living in areas threatened by militants.
